	25		It has been found that the handing over of the Trench mortar Batteries ^{to 51st Division} has not been satisfactory from our point of view. Practically new ^{stokes} guns were given in exchange for others which had been subjected a good deal hard work and were not in a satisfactory condition 13 having to be sent to S.O.M. 10th Corps for overhaul and repair and further that no spare parts were handed to this Division. These have been demanded from the base and issued. A few were also sent forward from the 51st Division & have been received. 51 trench carts were handed over and none received in exchange and it is now found that none are available in this area.
