1 Lieut. General Taylor proceeded in 1811 to join the 22nd Dragoons in the East Indies, where he served until their return to Europe and disbandment, 25th October 1820. He was in the field in 1815 and 16, and during the whole of the Mahratta war in 1817-19; the published official records show that his conduct was consplcuous in the Brigade cavalry actions of Bucktowlie and of Nagnore, and In that of Ashta (20th Feb. 1818), the Enemy having charged overthrew one Regiment and cut down the General commanding, he, as Brigade Major, incurred the responsibility of countermending the retreat, of ordering measures which terminated in the entire defeat of the Peishwar, the death of his Commander in Chief (Gokla), and he rescued the Rajah of Satarrah, the influential events that terminated the war. At the siege of Capaul-droog, he commanded a battery at the storm (13th May 1819), he blew open the first gate with a galloper gun of the 22nd Dragoons, and heading the Forlorn Hope, he stormed in succession the five distinct circles of fortifications, every man and officer of his party being either killed or wounded, he received at the summit of that strong hill fort, at the moment of success in its capture, a shot through his lungs and body that killed the Grenadler behind him. The Governor General of India specially recommended him to favourable consideration for his services in India. In 1823 and 24 he was employed in the Cape Cavalry against the Caffres, and was recommended for promotion by the Governor and Commander in Chief. In Jan. 1841 he was relieved from a bullet which had been in his body since 1819. In Aug. 1846 his life was imperilled from a surgical operation consequent upon the passage of some cloth driven into him by a shot. In Nov. 1848 he was relieved from a piece of bone broken in his body hy a shots. From April 1854 to Dec. 1857 he was a Colonel on the Staff at the Cape of Good Hope, where as a Brigadier at a "period of peculiar difficulty and imminently threatened war "he commanded a large force in Kaffra 1\frac{327}{27} he was sent to England from Malta to establish discipline in a corps that had fired at and nearly killed their Adjutant, their insubordination sustained by a turbulent mob at a period of popular excitement. He took command and the battalion shot him three times on the public parade, they fired into his windows and shot through the cheek a field alde who stood behind him. Without calling in other troops he suppressed the mutiny, and alone he overawed the fury of the mob. The approbation of his Major General was submitted by his Lt. General to the Horse Guards, and elicited through the Adjutant General the Sovereign's record that "the decided and necessary punishment to which he had resorted had effectually repressed the spirit that prevailed when he assumed the command."

2 Colonel Ross commanded a detached force on the Nepaul frontier in 1859; drove the rebels from the plains of Tilawara where there was a large Bazar, and new day attacked them in the Jungle of Plpurea, the whole rebel army in consequence retired to Botonl, where they were cut up by Sir It. Kelly—for general services on the frontler was highly complimented by the Commander in Chief and Sir R. Kelly (Medal).
